Statement by Thomas B. Wine in response to August 31, 2020 Facebook posts by Sam Aguiar: Re Breonna Taylor as Co-Defendant in the Jamarcus Glover case.

Today Sam Aguiar, the attorney for the estate of Breonna Taylor, posted on Facebook that the Office of Commonwealth's Attorney and I, as Commonwealth's Attorney, named Breonna Taylor as a Co-Defendant in a pending case against Jamarcus Glover.

Breonna Taylor was never a Co-Defendant in the Jamarcus Glover case. A case including Breonna Taylor as a Co-Defendant was never presented to the Grand Jury nor did our office ever consider presenting one to the Grand Jury with her name. Our office has not and does not posthumously indict any person who is deceased.

The plea sheet that Sam Aguiar posted on Facebook was a draft that was part of pre-indictment plea negotiations with Mr. Glover and his attorney. Those drafts were never part of the court record and are not court documents. We were aware of the information in the warrants as well as the jail phone calls where Mr. Glover implicated Ms. Taylor in his criminal activity. When I was advised of the discussions, out of respect for Ms. Taylor, I directed that Ms. Breonna Taylor's name be removed. The final plea sheet provided to Mr. Glover's counsel is attached and clearly does not include Ms. Taylor as a Co-Defendant. This plea sheet was emailed on July 21, 2020 to Mr. Glover's attorney. The offer was withdrawn when Mr. Glover failed to surrender himself to court.

Mr. Aguiar's characterization of the draft plea sheet is false as Ms. Taylor was never a Co-Defendant with Mr. Glover. Further, his comments regarding our office distributing "one-sided" information is also a false accusation.

2. Amended Charges (if any):

3. Reason(s) for amended charge(s) and UOR Code(s) (if applicable):

4. Facts of the case:

During a period of time leading up to April 22, 2020, in Jefferson County, Kentucky, the Defendant, acting along with his codefendants and/or others, engaged in an organized crime syndicate that trafficked large amounts of crack cocaine, methamphetamine, marijuana, and opiates into Louisville. This organization sold narcotics mainly from 2424 Elliott Avenue and 2605 W. Muhammad Ali Blvd located in the Russell Neighborhood but also used 2426 and 2425 Elliott Avenue, both vacant houses, to store narcotics and/or firearms. The organization used 3003 Springfield Drive #4 to store proceeds from the trafficking operation. The Defendant also used 3003 Springfield Drive #4 as his address for his bank account with Chase Bank. Additionally, there is photographic evidence of the Defendant going to 3003 Springfield Drive #4 on January 16, 2020, and picking up a package before going straight to 2605 W. Muhammad Ali Blvd, an address where the Defendant routinely sold narcotics.

Louisville Metro Police Department's Place Based Investigation Unit began a long term investigation into this criminal syndication after multiple search warrants were executed on Elliot Ave by members of LMPD's First Division. This investigation included physical surveillance, pole camera surveillance, other electronic surveillance, and the use of confidential informants for narcotics purchases.

On March 13, 2020, the Defendant participated in the sale of narcotics and members of the Louisville Metro Police Department executed a search warrant which recovered approximately 119.032 grams of cocaine and over 10 dosage units of opiates from 2424 Elliott Avenue. The Defendant was present at the time of the search warrant. Following the Defendant's arrest from the execution of this search warrant, the Defendant can be heard on recorded jail calls stating that he kept some of his money at 3003 Springfield Drive #4. More specifically, the Defendant states that the resident of 3003 Springfield Drive had been "handling all his money" and that he can "walk into that residence and go directly to whatever it is no problem".

On April 22, 2020, the Defendant again participated in the sale of narcotics at 2424 Elliot Avenue and a search warrant recovered approximately 102.6 grams of cocaine and approximately 15.65 grams of methamphetamine from 2424 Elliott Avenue. The Defendant was not present during the execution of that search warrant but was seen leaving the house shortly before it was executed.
